GLOBAL CITIZEN World Health Organization

CANAL+ GROUP WILL BROADCAST THE EXCEPTIONAL LIVE EVENT
"ONE WORLD: TOGETHER AT HOME" IN 30 COUNTRIES

"One World: Together At Home" is an exceptional live event that will air on April 18 at the initiative of singer Lady Gaga and the charity Global Citizen. Carried by many international artists in this time of unprecedented global pandemic, it is meant to support healthcare workers and raise funds for the World Health Organization.

In order to give as many people as possible access to this global event of solidarity and sharing, Canal+ Group will broadcast it in 30 countries:

- The concert will be broadcasted live on CSTAR in France during the night of Saturday, April 18 to Sunday, April 19 at 2:00 am. It will also be live on CSTAR's social networks with the hashtag #TogetherAtHome;
- It will then be available in replay for 72 hours on myCANAL;
- The event will also be broadcasted on Sunday, April 19 in prime time on CANAL+ Africa as well as on the Group's antennas in Poland, Vietnam and Myanmar.

"One World: Together At Home" will be held around the world, across platforms and channels, and will be hosted in the United States by the American late-night show stars trio Jimmy Kimmel, Stephen Colbert and Jimmy Fallon. Global health experts will go live from their homes one after another as well as legendary artists like Paul McCartney, Andrea Bocelli, Stevie Wonder, Eddie Vedder, Elton John, Billie Eilish or Chris Martin from Coldplay.
