Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ▶ On December 13, 2024, Vivendi SE ("Vivendi") distributed one (1) ordinary share in the capital of Havas N.V. ("Havas", and such shares "Havas Shares") for every one (1) ordinary share in the capital of Vivendi ("Vivendi Shares") held by each holder of such Vivendi Shares as of December 13, 2024 (the "Distribution").

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ▶ The receipt of Havas Shares by Vivendi shareholders is expected to be taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Shareholders' basis in the Havas Shares received should be equal to the fair market value of such shares.

Vivendi assumes that the Distribution is entirely treated as a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes because Vivendi does not currently calculate, and has not historically calculated, its current or accumulated earnings and profits for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and, as a result, shareholders should treat the Distribution entirely as a dividend under section 316 of the Code.

The receipt of Havas Shares by Vivendi shareholders should not result in an adjustment to such shareholders' U.S. tax basis in their Vivendi Shares.

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ▶ There is no direct guidance under U.S. federal income tax law as to the proper approach or method for determining the fair market value of Havas Shares received in the Distribution. In general, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, fair market value is the price at which property would change hands between a willing buyer and willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell the property, and both having reasonable knowledge of the facts.

Vivendi believes that one possible approach to determining the fair market value of Havas Shares for this purpose (as well as other purposes) is to look to the opening price on December 16, 2024 for such shares, when trading on such shares became available. Other values may be more appropriate. Vivendi recommends that each person who received any Havas Shares in the Distribution consult with such person's own tax advisor to determine the fair market value of such shares.

17 List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based ▶ Sections 301(c), 312, and 316.

18 Can any resulting loss be recognized? ▶ Not applicable.

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year ▶ The reportable tax year is the year in which the Distribution occurs. For taxpayers whose tax year is the calendar year, the reportable tax year is the year ending December 31, 2024.
